

Fact Sheet – AWE awardees in the 47th Distinguished Salesperson Award

Award-winning presentations demonstrating innovative ideas

- Environmental-friendly Menus for a Sustainable Future

Anita Wong, Assistant Director of Business Development – MICE Events

Anita has joined AWE for 4 years with a wealth of experience in the catering service. Her solid background of overseeing banquet and convention sales equipped her with invaluable market insight and good understanding of clients' needs. In view of public's increasingly concerns on environmental issues, Anita offers green solutions including "Ocean-Friendly Menu" and "CarbonCare Menu", to help making clients' events environmentally-friendly and committed to Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR).

- Take a Break with Style and Fun

Yasmin Cheng, Senior Business Development Manager – MICE Events

Having provided venue solutions for international large-scale Conference & Exhibition for years, Yasmin has a track record to work with organisers from different background and nationalities. To offer clients value-added services and enhance visitors' total experiences, Yasmin introduces Thematic Refreshment Session with stylish decoration and enticing feasts customised to tie-in with the event topic or corporate branding element, such as "Modern Art Deco" for Art related seminar or conference.

- Ideal and Flexible Venue for Corporate Events

Rachel Lo, Assistant Business Development Manager – Special Event

Rachel has joined AWE for 3 years upon accomplishment of her Bachelor degree, and focused on offering innovative venue solutions and ideas for concert and special events ranging from 100 to 20,000 persons. To ensure every event a unique, meaningful and memorable one, Rachel collaborates with clients to work out creative and dynamic programs, utilising the close juxtaposition of indoor and outdoor facilities, and with incorporation of "healthy", "environmental-friendly" and "charitable" elements which helps adding more colours to the events.