

Fact Sheet – AWE Awardees in the 48th Distinguished Salesperson Award

Award-winning presentations affirming AsiaWorld-Expo's status as a world-class MICE venue

- An indulging and integrated experience tailored for your prestigious events

Winki Shek, Senior Business Development Manager

With a wealth of experience in overseeing venue solutions for concerts and special events, such as the Longines Masters of Hong Kong and the Madonna Rebel Heart Tour Concert, Winki assumes an exceptional sales-driving role and demonstrates excellent client management and communication skills. Leverage on the Longines Hong Kong Masters, Asia's only five-star equestrian event, Winki has fully showcased how AWE has emerged as an EXPOtainment hub, where exhibition converges with entertainment, making it an ideal social platform for networking event with Michelin-starred dining, sporting and cultural experience, by taking advantage of the venue's scalability and the team's high adaptability.

- Let the convenient "Smart Card" guide you for a hassle-free journey

Marco Yung, Event Planning Officer

Running for the "Outstanding Young Salesperson Award" Category, Marco is one of the youngest members of AWE. Joining AWE upon accomplishment of his Bachelor degree in 2014, Marco's dynamism and creativity has always contributed new ideas and energies to the company. Having been in charge of a diversity of events, Marco was able to demonstrate initiative, leadership and flexibility in working with different event organisers, offering value-added services tailor-made for the clients. With the "Smart Card, Smart Venue" Program, Marco offers convenient and economical solutions to organisers, and ensures a hassle-free experience to overseas visitors. The card covers not only transportation, F&B services, but also the incorporation of event specific branding elements for pre and post-show promotion.

